"LEST WE FORGET..."

A REMINDER ABOUT SOME ACTIONS VOTED AT THE 188TH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONFERENCE:

Dear Partner-Colleagues in Ministry in Massachusetts UCC Churches:

Cynics (of which I am one) often observe that our Conference Annual Meeting passes Resolutions every year which no one remembers or does anything about. Please join me in a conspiracy to make it be different this year. Several Resolutions from the June 1987 meeting focus on our churches, congregations and communities and may well be translated into parish program. (Ref: pp. 28-36, 1987 MINUTES AND DIRECTORY)

 RESOLUTION ON A JUST PEACE COVENANT FOR LOCAL CONGREGATIONS is an attempt to help your local congregation find ways of taking ownership of our denomination's longstanding priority on peacemaking. The Resolution recommends a program or process of study, exploration, experimentation and action that may lead to a congregation covenanting together to make concerns for Justice and Peace central and intentional in its ongoing life.

The resolution contains a number of specific suggestions. If you wish outside counsel in moving on any of these, please feel free to contact your Area Just Peace Coordinator through your Area Office, or me at Framingham. If you request it, we will send you a sample copy of the book A JUST PEACE CHURCH and an accompanying study guide.

Please keep me informed of how you proceed on this resolution so that your congregation's experience in working to make peace and justice an intentional priority can be shared with others.

 RESOLUTION ON AIDS AND THE CHURCH was an attempt not only to focus some attention and do some educating at the Annual Meeting about AIDS, but also to urge members of all our congregations to begin or continue to develop greater awareness of what is going on in our communities around AIDS awareness and education. There may be experienced resource people in your community to be called on. You may have neighbors who are already trying to offer helping ministries to PWAs, family members, friends, caregivers, etc.

For additional resources, we invite you to communicate with our AIDS Task Team about educational materials or a speaker. The Task Team also asks you to share what is happening in your community and what your experience is in ministry as it relates to AIDS.

 RESOLUTION ON HEALTH CLINICS AND HEALTH GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING SERVICES IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS was an attempt to have the Annual Meeting make a statement that in principle school-based comprehensive health clinics that provide a wide range of needed services are not automatically opposed on moral grounds by all branches of organized religion in Massachusetts!

The resolution goes on to urge two things of your congregation: that your members become knowledgeable about child and adolescent health needs and problems in your community and work to find appropriate ways to address them; and that your congregation continue to provide discussion of and education about issues of human sexuality.

 RESOLUTION ON RACISM IN OUR SOCIETY TODAY asks our church folk to exercise leadership in local communities by working with school committees and administrators to press for curricula in elementary and high schools that will help combat racist thinking and attitudes; asks churches to sponsor workshops, forums and programs that help educate against racism, racial discrimination and intolerance.

The resolution calls on our church members to advocate for racial and economic justice in our communities around issues of housing and employment opportunities; to work for effective and aggressive affirmative action policies in the Conference and in our churches; to develop and implement new initiatives in our ministries to and with people of color; and to be bold to counter and confront racist and anti-Semitic attitudes and practices wherever we find them.

 RESOLUTION ON TELETRACK GAMBLING addressed a particular bill before the legislature that would permit the establishment of a teletrack theatre with parimutual betting facilities in Chicopee. Copies of the resolution with a covering letter have been sent to all those specified in the resolution, and became part of an advocacy packet developed by the Greater Springfield Council of Churches.

Additionally, the resolution asked all the delegates to the Annual Meeting to contact their local state representatives and ask them to vote against the placing of such teletrack-gambling establishments anywhere in the Commonwealth.

Although no votes have yet been taken by the Conference on the subject of economic justice or Economics and Faith, a Commission on A Considered Statement, established by the Board of Directors as a result of an Annual Meeting action of 1985, has been seeking to involve congregations in a process of study and reflection on Economics and Christian Faith. The last two Annual Meetings have given time and attention to preliminary presentations by the Commission, and a preliminary draft of a "considered statement" was circulated throughout the Conference in May.

All the churches in the Conference are invite to participate in study and reflection on economics and the Christian faith and to contribute the results of your study process to the drafting of the statement to be presented to the 1988 meeting.

 To assist you, we can send you the following materials for your use this fall:

-three versions of a study curriculum for use with a group in your church (one design for a 24-hour retreat format, one for three 1 1/2-hour sessions, one for six sessions).

-copies of Christian Faith and Economic Life, a study paper prepared for the UCC nationally, and an accompanying study guide to assist in using it.

-copies of the Draft of a Considered Statement of May, 1987, prepared for this year's Annual Meeting.

Please feel free to join my conspiracy to make last June's Annual Meeting live in our churches' programs.

MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
BYLAWS

Article I

PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."

2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.

3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

   An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the "Conference." The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

   It joins with other Conferences and agencies of the United Church of Christ for the advancement of God's work in this world.

5. An Area is established by the Board of Directors and is composed of an Association or Associations informally grouped together for the convenience of the Conference.

Article II

DENOMINATIONAL BASIS

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

Article III

DOCTRINAL BASIS

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our forebears confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

* Appendix A - RESOLUTION ON A JUST PEACE COVENANT FOR LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

The 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges each local congregation within the Conference to adapt, then adopt, the following "Covenant for a Just Peace Congregation."

Background

The Fifteenth General Synod voted the Justice and Peace Priority affirming the UCC as a Just Peace Church. In order to encourage Conferences, Associations, and congregations to affirm this priority, the following covenant is offered. It may be modified to fit different situations. It is recommended that a justice and peace committee be set up to develop a program of education, prayer, Bible study, and action which will help lead the congregation to adopt a Just Peace Covenant. It is also recommended that each of the following five areas may be represented in the covenant, although various ideas within each may be selected. The covenant below was adapted by the national UCC Justice and Peace Priority Working Group from a model covenant originally drafted in the Illinois Conference.

COVENANT FOR A JUST PEACE CONGREGATION

As a congregation of the Church of Jesus Christ, we recognize that God is calling us to be about the work of bringing justice and making peace in our world, in our community, and in ourselves. Confessing that this call challenges our individual and corporate lives, we covenant among ourselves and with God to seek the ways of justice and peace so as to make a difference in our lives and the lives of all who experience injustice and violence in our community, nation, and the world and to reach out to those people and to understand those problems and issues which are often overlooked. Specifically, we covenant ourselves as a Just Peace congregation to journey in the following five areas:

1) SPIRITUAL RENEWAL - Suggested Activities:

- to include regularly in our corporate worship intercessory prayers for justice and peace in specific areas.
- to focus (#) worship services each (month, year) on justice and peace through scripture, prayer, litanies, sermons, special offerings, and speakers.
- to encourage our members to study scripture concerning God's call to justice and peace and to pray daily for fulfillment of that call.
- to reaffirm this covenant in a worship service each year.
- to seek in our daily congregational life to act as a people centered in justice and peace as expressions of God's love.

2) EDUCATION AND THEOLOGY - Suggested Activities:
- to create a Just Peace display (arts, posters, songs) and/or library.
- to hold a "Just Peace" adult study in our church based on the General Synod XV "Call to Action" and the UCC Book, A JUST PEACE CHURCH.
- to have a unit each year in church school focusing on Just Peace concerns.
- to study and respond to the MACUCC and UCC Economics and Faith Study Paper.
- to plan a parenting for peace and justice seminar/training at our church.
- to develop special justice/peace themes during church seasons (e.g., Lent with Shalom theme, Advent with Prince of Peace, etc.).
- to provide a study on modern day justice and peace makers.

3) STEWARDSHIP OF RESOURCES - Suggested Activities:
- to promote and support UCC offerings funding justice and peace ministries, e.g., Just Peace Offering (25% to be used in local congregations), Neighbors in Need (NIN), and One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS).
- to consider responsible use of personal and corporate investments to further justice and peace (investments that further economic justice, etc.).
- to consider personal and corporate expenditures in light of a just peace church (e.g., purchases from whom?, balance between self-enriching and justice).
- to promote personal and corporate lifestyles consistent with a just peace church (e.g., celebration and holidays).
- to encourage members and/or congregations to communicate with local business and broader corporation leaders on economic policies (e.g., red-linings, corporate closings, etc.) to further justice and peace.

4) COMMUNITY WITNESS - Suggested Activities:
- to identify places of injustice in our community and develop a program to address at least one of these areas.
- to encourage and seek ways for our members to volunteer in programs of justice and peacemaking (food pantries, shelters for homeless, refugee "sanctuary," campaign for civil rights of lesbian/gay persons, Nuclear Weapons Free Zone).
- to participate in ecumenical rallies and demonstrations on appropriate issues.
- to seek coverage in our local press of our church's work for justice and peace.

5) CAMPAIGN ORGANIZING AND ADVOCACY - Suggested Activities:
- to encourage our members to write elected representatives, expressing their concern for specific legislation on justice and peace issues, particularly in Southern Africa, Central America, and Children in Crisis.
- to participate in Conference and ecumenical legislative action networks.
- to designate a specific day of each (month, year, legislative session) for a table after worship for members to correspond with representatives.
- to sponsor periodic forums to meet our representatives and discuss their positions on justice and peace issues.
- to meet as a delegation of Christians with our representatives and request their support of justice and peace legislation.
- to write letters to our newspaper expressing our commitment and concern and encouraging our members to do so.
- to participate in interdenominational and interfaith projects that address justice and peace issues.

In order to fulfill this covenant, we also will establish a (or strengthen an existing) Justice and Peace Committee in our congregation to monitor and encourage follow-through and reaffirmation in the above areas.

This we covenant to do, in our effort to be faithful to God's call in Jesus Christ to seek the ways of justice and peace as a congregation.

By vote of Church Council (Cabinet, Executive Committee, Congregation, etc.)

* Appendix B - RESOLUTION ON AIDS AND THE CHURCH

As people of God, we seek to be faithful to our Christian heritage which has been centered around God's call through Christ to wholeness and health, and, through our seeking, we remember the healing works and loving actions of our brother, Jesus (Mt. 4:23-24, 9:1-8, 21-31, 20:29-34, 8:22-26; Luke 5:17-26, 14:1-6; John 5:1-18, 9:1-41), to all who were afflicted, reviled, forgotten, or lost. It is this remembering and respect for Jesus' ideals of justice (be it social, economic, or political) which prompts us to speak out on behalf of all those living with Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS).

WHEREAS the world is experiencing a pandemic which is afflicting hundreds of thousands of people - men, women, and children - and, in the foreseeable future, hundreds of millions of people; and

WHEREAS the Surgeon General of the United States has underscored the immediate importance and priority of education regarding the contraction of the HIV virus; and

WHEREAS this retrovirus has, is, and will continue to impact the health, work, economic viability, and very lives of large numbers of people in this country and all countries around the globe; and

WHEREAS fear of and ignorance about AIDS has prevented many Christians from making the loving and appropriate response to their sisters and brothers in Christ who are living with the disease, and to their families and caregivers; and

WHEREAS it has been proved that, when people are helped to understand the causes of and prevention for AIDS, they do respond more frequently with faithful presence and solidarity with those who are afflicted; and

WHEREAS the MACUCC has traditionally stood for a just, caring, and loving response to those who found themselves ill, alienated, and without advocate; and

WHEREAS there already have been 436 deaths and are now 879 confirmed cases of AIDS, 8,000 probable cases of AIDS Related Complex (ARC), and some 43,950 people carrying the HIV Virus, all in the state of Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS AIDS has become a political and economic, as well as pastoral, issue, due to the nightmare of discrimination which has occurred against those persons living with AIDS in the areas of housing, jobs, and medical insurance;

BE IT RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, following the proposed "Pronouncement on AIDS" to be put before delegates to the Sixteenth General Synod in Cleveland, hereby declares its support and concern for those living with AIDS, and for their families, friends, and caregivers, and that it affirms the many pastoral and educational ministries throughout the state and those other programs designed to inform which have been inaugurated by agencies, hospitals, and the media; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting requests its Board of Directors to encourage the educational programs for people of all ages in MACUCC faith communities about the pastoral and economic needs of persons with AIDS (PWAs) and to support the ministries of MACUCC churches which seek to be places of reconciliation and healing for persons with AIDS; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting requests its Board of Directors to include as part of the MACUCC Personnel Policies a policy prohibiting discrimination in employment against those living with AIDS or ARC; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting encourages the Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility and MACUCC churches and Associations to work for adequate funding of research directed at discovering an effective maintenance therapy and/or cure for AIDS and also to work for fair housing, job opportunities, and adequate health insurance for those who carry the HIV virus or are diagnosed with AIDS or ARC; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ requests the CMOSR Task Team on AIDS to encourage churches to promote education and counselling for people of all ages regarding the causes and prevention of AIDS in order to help individuals and groups make safe, informed, and compassionate choices about appropriate behavior, and that the Task Team on AIDS provide current, accurate information regarding AIDS to churches in order to enable them to address and advocate for political, moral, and social issues; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ endorses participation by all its churches in AIDS AWARENESS WEEK (October 4-11) by preaching, prayer, educational programs, literature distribution, and liturgies for healing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the CMOSR Task Team on AIDS be advised to report to the 189th Annual Meeting regarding the work and projects undertaken by the churches of this Conference and recommend further issues which the churches should actively address in the future.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting prayerfully calls upon all MACUCC congregations to be places of hope and healing for all who come seeking, especially for those brothers and sisters in Christ who are living alone and afraid, feeling alienated and abandoned to AIDS.

* Appendix C - GUIDELINES FOR CLERGY COMPENSATION 1988

The 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, commends the effort of the local churches in endeavoring to reach the goals recommended in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation 1987.

The 188th Annual Meeting recommends:

(1) that churches pay a minimum entry-level cash salary of $16,000 for a full-time pastor;

(2) that churches not at the minimum salary work toward the minimum and also at improving C, D, and E, below;

(3) that churches reimburse fully all professional expenses;

(4) that churches already at or above the minimum and also providing for C through F give at least a cost-of-living increase and consider a merit increase.

(PLEASE NOTE that these abbreviated guidelines are designed to be used in conjunction with the Guidelines for Clergy Compensation booklet from the Conference Office.)

A. CONSIDERATIONS FOR DETERMINING CLERGY COMPENSATION

While the ministry is a unique profession requiring special patterns of financial compensation, several overall factors can be considered in determining the level of support for clergy. The total compensation package could justly be comparable to the median income of the parish and perhaps be on a par with that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service, special skills, and training and including annual cost-of-living increases. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy and the compensation package can be designated in a way to maximize the pastor's income.1

B. CASH SALARY

The cash salary (not including housing and other expenses) ought to be no less than $16,000 for a full-time person in ordained ministry; less than $16,000 would indicate a person called to part-time work.

C. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

The church should provide an amount equal to at least one-half the self-employment SS tax of 13.02%; such an allowance would be taxable income but would ease the burden of the big SS tax bite.

D.* HOUSING THAT PROVIDES:

a) a furnishings allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan for those living in a parsonage; OR

b) a housing allowance for those who want to rent or own their homes.

E. BENEFITS SHOULD INCLUDE

1. a pension plan, with a church contribution of 14% of salary basis, which is (a) at least 130% of cash salary plus any furnishings allowance for those living in a parsonage, or (b) cash salary plus housing allowance for those with such allowance;

2. a family protection plan, including disability insurance, which is an additional 1% of the base used for the annuity;

3. group life insurance which costs $50 per year;

4. medical and health insurance, plus dental care, as provided through the United Church of Christ;

5. continuing education funding;

6. sabbatical education funding;

7. holiday and vacation time;

8. maternity/paternity paid leave.

F. ALL PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

The new tax law allows the deduction of business expenses only on Schedule A and any stated allowance for these items must be included in income. Most taxpayers no longer itemize since higher deductions are given to everyone. Therefore, it is important that churches reimburse, or pay directly, all of the costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expenses. Included are:

1) books and professional subscriptions;

2) professional memberships;

3) travel expenses and car allowance (church-owned car or travel reimimbursement);

4) any other expenses incurred by the pastor and directly attributable to the exercise of ministry.

[2] According to the IRS, "housing" includes furnishings and the miscellaneous running expenses (everything except food and maid service) of a home, including appurtenances such as a garage, sidewalks, and front and back yards.

*Appendix D - RESOLUTION ON HEALTH CLINICS AND HEALTH GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING SERVICES IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Introduction:

The compelling mandate of the Gospel to the Christian Church to work for social justice and the commitment of the Church to the education and well-being of children and youth combine to challenge the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. The Annual Meeting is asked to address the double issue of health clinics in the public schools and of education, guidance, and counseling on human sexuality as one important function of such clinics.

The lack of availability of comprehensive general health care, including screening, diagnostic, treatment, and referral services, to many of the children of poor families in our communities makes health clinics in the public schools a justice issue. At the same time, there is a growing realization throughout society that many of our most pressing social dilemmas are related to issues of human sexuality.

Health clinics in public schools has become a very controversial issue for some people because the services such clinics would offer will include concern with issues of human sexuality. While human sexuality cannot be left out of consideration with student health, provision of care concerned with mental health, substance abuse, and routine childhood and adolescent health also cannot be omitted from such a service.

WHEREAS in many communities in the Commonwealth, significant numbers of young children and adolescents in the school population do not receive adequate health care, health education, and counseling;

WHEREAS this lack of health care and education constitutes a social injustice to the children and adolescents of this Commonwealth;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ:

1. Expresses its support in principle for efforts to develop school-based comprehensive health clinics in Massachusetts communities where the health needs of children and young people are not being met;

2. Urges members of congregations of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ to become more knowledgeable about child and adolescent health needs and problems in their own communities and to advocate and work for public school health clinics as deemed appropriate to help meet those needs;

3. Urges the churches of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ to engage their members in programs to provide and promote discussion of and education about issues of human sexuality.

* Appendix E - RESOLUTION ON RACISM IN OUR SOCIETY TODAY

The bottom line of our faith as a body of Christ is that we are all children of God, and God is not impressed now and never will be with human status, stature, or class. Racism, one of the most insidious evils of any day and age, calls for us to take a stand, to speak out against its evils and to act to eradicate injustice wherever it may be found, be it in South Africa, Central America, the United States of America, or in our own Commonwealth of Massachusetts. It is sad to note that, in this year of our Lord 1987, instead of diminishing or disappearing, racism is spreading in this beloved land of ours.

WHEREAS numerous incidents of racial violence, racist threats, slurs, and verbal harassment have occurred this past year on college campuses, in or around high schools, and elsewhere in many communities in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS widely publicized episodes of overt racial violence and racist posturings and threats have occurred at UMass, Amherst; Howard Beach, in Queens, N.Y.; and Forsyth County, Ga., many other episodes have gone unreported and unnoticed; the U.S. Department of Justice notes that, between 1980 and 1986, the number of reported incidents of racial violence increased almost three-fold, and these are only the incidents reported to the Justice Department; and

WHEREAS the Center for Democratic Renewal in Atlanta, Georgia acknowledges that "there's a green light in this society for racism, it's our historic legacy," and Frederick Hurst, head of the Commission Against Discrimination, concludes that "the scariest thing after all of the years of efforts and struggle to turn around civil rights in this country [is that] young people are beginning to manifest a kind of racist behavior exhibited during days of segregation"; and

WHEREAS the Supreme Court of our country has ruled favorably on Affirmative Action time and time again, but we in our churches and the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ find difficulty in acknowledging this as a principle for our actions flowing from our faith; and

WHEREAS patterns of racism are perpetuated through classism and economic inequalities that enable us to avoid taking responsibility for these patterns.

WE THEREFORE RESOLVE that the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ:

1. Calls on its churches and its leaders to work with local school boards to establish at the elementary and high school levels a required curriculum focused on the eradication of racist thinking and action. Also, calls on its churches and its leaders to sponsor workshops, public forums, and ecumenical classes that will better inform all on affirmative action, racism, racial discrimination, and intolerance.

2. Calls on the President of the United States to make a clear statement to the American public that "racism is wrong."

3. Affirms that while "we are one in the spirit, we are one in the Lord," this unity is found under God and Jesus Christ. It is neither unity dictated by the powerful nor unity that comes at the cost of the poor and oppressed; rather, it is unity based on righteousness, justice, and mercy for all and for all time.

4. Calls on church members, local churches, associations, and area bodies, beginning with the Board of Directors and staff of the Conference, to engage in workshops, educational programs, and other activities focusing on these issues and to become, in turn, advocates for racial and economic justice and to help create local groups to promote fair housing and sensitivity to racism and racial diversity and to become, in turn, advocate for racial and economic justice. To recognize (especially in our times) the effect of economic competitiveness and its skewing/distortion of our sense of equality and addressing this "crunch" in the actual implementation of Affirmative Action and standing against racism.

5. Looks with sadness and shame at the lack of people of color in leadership positions in our midst and the diminishing Black and Latino presence in our conference and calls for the bold implementation of our Affirmative Action Policies and calls on new initiatives in ministry to and with people of color in Massachusetts.

6. Calls on individuals to courageously confront racist attitudes and practices they encounter in their communities, workplace, and social circles, acting as ambassadors of Christ and agents of reconciliation.

7. Within our communities, antisemitism is very much alive. We call on churches to confront these sick attitudes while working on racism.

* Appendix F - RESOLUTION ON TELETRACK GAMBLING

WHEREAS the first Commandment calls us to place God before all other goals of our lives, while sin calls us away to strive for a multitude of other entities. Among these substitutes for God in our lives is, for some people, a desperate attempt to win money by gambling; and

WHEREAS gambling has long been recognized as a social evil, a source of addiction for a significant number of those who participate in it, causing them to waste financial resources needed for food, clothing, and shelter, and be a burden to society rather than a credit; and

WHEREAS governments should seek funding for programs in ways that are not socially destructive; and

WHEREAS legislation currently in the Massachusetts State House may request that the City of Chicopee, or any other municipality in Massachusetts, be allowed to permit the developing and operating of a teletrack within its boundaries. The teletrack betting theater would feature viewing of live horse or dog races on a very large screen and would encourage gamblers to place their bets on the contestant of their choice. The proximity of the proposed theater to the poorest neighborhoods of both Chicopee and Springfield, MA, will undoubtedly encourage many people who cannot afford to do so to try their luck.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 188th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ goes on record in opposition to the proposed Chicopee Teletrack or any other Teletrack theater that might be established within Massachusetts; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to Massachusetts Governor Michael Dukakis, Senate president William Bulger, Speaker of the House George Keverian, and to principal Massachusetts media.
